

Romans 8:26 says that the spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray for, but the spirit himself intercedes for us with groans that words cannot express.

I love this verse! God created each one of us one at a time. He also knows our weaknesses. He does not get angry with us about our points of vulnerability.

He does not become vengeful when we falter. He also understands when we are at a loss for words, and we are all that way sometimes when we pray.

There have been many times when I felt inadequate to express my deepest longings and pleadings for help, or healing, or deliverance for myself or someone else, often when they sound like rambling words.

What an amazing promise it is that the Spirit is interceding for us with the Father even when we do not know what to pray for.

I urge everyone to make the Holy Spirit welcome in our lives and accept all the help He has to give!

We need to take some time and invite the Spirit of the Lord into every area of our lives!
