

It only takes a few minutes to notice that many people present a picture of their lives that is filled with only happiness and fun. But our relationship with God requires honesty about our disappointments and pain as well as our joys.

For some people, there is not greater disappointment than their disability. Most people would say that they had adapted well to not being able to walk; but inside they are sad.

Through much prayer, the Holy Spirit reveals hidden resentment so deep within their heart that they do not even realize it is there. Letting God into that dark place means having to admit that they are angry at God for this happening to them in the first place. Coming to grips with that proof is the key to healing.

Through the light of God's love, the Holy Spirit gradually changes perspective. They begin to see how blessed they are to just be able to walk on crutches! Their new mission is to use their bodies, just as it is, for God's glory.

It is scary to reveal your whole heart to God. But if you take that leap, God can magnify the good and heal the hurt.

Being honest with God leads to healing and wholeness.

Matthew 22:37-38 Jesus said, "Thou shall love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment.

Evangelism

Evangelism at its most basic is sharing the Good News of Jesus – not because we are told to (Matthew 28: 16-20), but because we have been given so much we cannot help but share. The very word evangelism can scare us. What will people think or say? What if I can't talk to strangers or groups? And many other fears....

When I think of evangelism, two things come to my mind –

1. God does not ask us to do anything we cannot do with His help.
2. Actions speak louder than words.

This fall there are many ways we can get involved with evangelism to show God's love to our community and world:

- Trunk – R – Treat: showing love to the children in our town also shows love to the entire family.
- Wrapping are community in warmth
- CAMAL House: food for the hungry
- Shoebbox Ministry
- UMCOR: change
